EPIDERMA RENEWS ITS SUPPORT FOR THE FUTURE OF AESTHETICS

QUEBEC, March 19, 2025 – The network of medical-aesthetic clinics Epiderma once again confirms its commitment to supporting the next generation of aestheticians by awarding, for the seventeenth consecutive year, four scholarships to students enrolled in an aesthetics program. These exceptional scholarships in the sector aim to assist young talents in their professional development and help them excel in their field, thus fostering the emergence of promising careers.

"Supporting the new generation of aestheticians is an investment in the future of our industry. These young women, with their determination and desire to improve, are the professionals of tomorrow who will bring excellence to the field of aesthetics," says Michelle Cialdella, President of the Medicart Network.

The 2025 Epiderma Aesthetics Scholarship recipients are LAURÈNE BOUSSET (CFP Alma), ANDRÉA FEBBRARI-MORIN (CFP de l'Argile in Joliette), MEYLA MASSAM (CFP Pierre-Dupuy in Longueuil), and JENNY-SUE RODRIGUE (CFP Pozer in Saint-Georges).

The scholarships awarded to the four winners are valued at approximately $3,275 each and include a one-day observation internship in a clinic, a laser hair removal package for the underarms, a microdermabrasion treatment, a full range of Medicart cosmetic products, $1,250 in cash, and a potential career opportunity with Epiderma.
